Lawyers Alliance

F O R N E W Y O R K

Connecting Lawyers, Nonprofits, and Communities

Lawyers Alliance for New York is the leading provider of business and transactional legal services for nonprofit organizations that improve the quality of life of tens of thousands of New Yorkers in need. Today, our experienced staff and network of more than 2,200 pro bono lawyers from 145 law firms and corporations deliver quality corporate, tax, real estate, employment, intellectual property, and other legal assistance and education to more than 1,000 nonprofit organizations each year.

With your participation, Lawyers Alliance can continue to strengthen nonprofits that provide and advocate for economic opportunity, housing, health, education, community arts, and other vital programs that benefit low-income New Yorkers of all ages.

Honoree

Norie Campbell

THOMSON REUTERS

Norie Campbell joined Thomson Reuters in 2023 as the company's Chief Legal Officer and Company Secretary. At Thomson Reuters, Norie is accountable for legal, risk and compliance as well as government relations and social impact. She is the Executive Sponsor of Thomson Reuters' Global Pro Bono Program and has a robust history of service to the nonprofit sector. Prior to joining Thomson Reuters, Norie held a number of executive-level roles at TD Bank Group, including serving as General Counsel for a decade.

Thomson Reuters is committed to leveraging its trusted information, technology, partnerships, and people to strengthen institutions, protect vulnerable communities, and expand access to justice. Pro bono work is integral to its purpose-driven culture and Thomson Reuters has been a consistent, thoughtful, and holistic partner to Lawyers Alliance since 2014, with volunteers handling both limited scope representations and cases. Thomson Reuters' commitment goes beyond its lawyers. Through its Thomson Reuters Social Impact Hackathon, marketing and communications professionals provided feedback and suggestions on Lawyers Alliance clinic materials. Lawyers Alliance also participated in Thomson Reuters' AI for Justice program designed to help nonprofits safely harness the potential of AI.

Honoree

Shaba R. Keys

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF HARLEM

Shaba R. Keys is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Boys & Girls Club of Harlem, where she leads the organization's evolution as a next-generation anchor institution advancing academic achievement, career readiness, and economic mobility for young people and families. BGCHarlem reaches more than 2,300 youth annually across its program sites. A recognized leader in social innovation, Shaba brings more than two decades of leadership advancing equity through education, advocacy, and public-private partnerships.

BGCHarlem has been a Lawyers Alliance client for more than 20 years, beginning with a complex real estate matter developing what became the organization's main Clubhouse on 145th Street. Over the years, Lawyers Alliance and our volunteer attorneys have helped BGCHarlem with many governance and employment matters.

Honoree

American International Group, Inc.

ACCEPTING ON BEHALF OF AIG:

MARTIN BOGUE

American International Group, Inc. (AIG) has a longstanding commitment to pro bono and public service. Since 1995, the company's volunteers have contributed their time to Lawyers Alliance clinics focused on helping nonprofits and other organizations receive legal support ranging from contract reviews to corporate governance assessments. This vital work has helped ensure organizations receive the professional resources they need to make a positive impact in their communities. AIG's partnership with Lawyers Alliance has also included skills-based volunteer programs and workshops that support nonprofits in areas including social media, cybersecurity, and governance.

Martin Bogue, Global Head of Regulatory, Underwriting and Claims Legal, will accept the award on behalf of AIG.

The Jazz Power Quartet, led by Eli Yamin (“Dr. E”), combines the spark of swing and bebop with the soulful, healing power of the blues. Their performances weave together timeless works by Thelonious Monk, Duke Ellington, and Charles Mingus with beloved popular songs – creating a set that invites you to tap your feet and connect with the people around you. Featuring some of New York’s finest jazz musicians, the Quartet delivers a vibrant, deeply engaging musical experience.

Jazz Power Initiative (JPI), founded in 2003, is a New York–based nonprofit dedicated to transforming lives through jazz performance and education. Serving ages 6 to 80+, JPI brings high-quality, low-cost, transformative experiences to Upper Manhattan through youth programs, adult learning, and intergenerational performances that energize and uplift the Uptown community.
