CLE CREDIT FOR PRO BONO

Lawyers Alliance for New York is authorized by the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board as a Pro Bono CLE Provider.

1. Eligible pro bono work - Attorneys can earn CLE credit for pro bono legal services performed for nonprofit clients of Lawyers Alliance for New York serving the poor in New York.

2. Amount of CLE Credit – Attorneys will earn one CLE skills credit hour for every two 60-minute hours of pro bono legal service. Half credits are available. Attorneys can earn up to 10 CLE credits for pro bono during any one two-year reporting cycle. Attorneys can carry over credits into the next biennial cycle under certain circumstances. Newly admitted attorneys can earn CLE credits for pro bono work, solely for the purpose of carrying over credits to the following biennial reporting cycle.

3. How to get pro bono CLE credit - The New York State CLE Board Regulations and Guidelines require attorneys to keep time records of their participation in pro bono CLE activities and to maintain those records for four years. The Regulations also require the following:

   1) Attorneys who perform Pro Bono for CLE activities sponsored by Lawyers Alliance for New York must complete an Affirmation of Participation describing the services provided, and stating the number of hours of pro bono legal service that the attorney performed. (Lawyers Alliance for New York will provide attorneys with an Affirmation of Participation form for this purpose.)

   2) The pro bono attorney must submit a signed Affirmation of Participation to Lawyers Alliance for New York.

   3) Once Lawyers Alliance for New York receives an attorney’s Affirmation of Participation, we will provide the attorney with a Letter of Participation which the attorney should retain for 4 years along with the attorney’s own pro bono time records. (The Letter of Participation is your “proof” that you have earned a certain amount of CLE credit for pro bono services.)
